Former Anchorage Mayor Dave Bronson Announces Candidacy for Governor of Alaska

Campaign launches with multi-region rollout events in Fairbanks, Mat-Su, Anchorage, and Soldotna

Fairbanks, AK – This morning at 7:30 a.m. in Fairbanks, former Anchorage Mayor Dave Bronson officially announced his candidacy for Governor of Alaska. Bronson, an Air Force veteran and proven conservative leader, pledged to put "Alaska First" by focusing on economic growth, infrastructure, affordable housing, stronger schools, and protecting the Permanent Fund Dividend.

Following his announcement in Fairbanks, the campaign will continue its statewide rollout with a rally in Wasilla tonight and two additional media opportunity events:

- Anchorage Press Conference
 - When: Friday, October 3, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.
 - Where: Sullivan Arena Gold Room, 1600 Gambell St., Anchorage, AK
- Soldotna (Kenai) Meet & Greet
 - When: Friday, October 3, 2025 at 5:30 p.m.
 - Where: Kenai River Lodge, 393 Riverside Dr., Soldotna, AK

"Alaska has incredible promise, but too many families are being priced out of the American Dream, too many young people are leaving, and too many opportunities are slipping away," said Bronson. "I'm running for Governor to fight for Alaska's future, unlock our resources, and make sure this is a place where our kids and grandkids can thrive."

The Bronson for Governor campaign will release additional details about upcoming events and media availability in the coming days.
