Senate Republican Caucus Welcomes Tilton, Rauscher

ANCHORAGE – Today the Republican members of the Alaska State Senate confirmed the appointments of former Speaker of the House Cathy Tilton (R – Wasilla) and Representative George Rauscher (R – Sutton).

According to Senator Robb Myers (R – North Pole), “With nearly two decades of legislative experience in the Alaska State House, Senators Tilton and Rauscher have served their state with diligence and integrity.” The Senate Minority Whip continued, “Our caucus is pleased to welcome such dedicated public servants.”

Both Senators Tilton and Rauscher were frontrunners in their district meeting votes prior to being appointed by Governor Mike Dunleavy (R – Wasilla).

“It has been a profound privilege to represent my constituents, and I am grateful for the support, confidence, and trust shown throughout the nomination process by both District M and the Governor,” Senator Tilton said. The former Representative continued, “I approach this new chapter with the same tenacity, dedication, and commitment to principled leadership that I brought to the House.”

According to Senator Rauscher said, “I would like to thank my colleagues in the Senate for their vote of confidence and the opportunity to represent the people of District O. It is an honor to work with them and serve my district.”

The Senate Republican Caucus is honored to be joined by steadfast conservatives who share our values and have dedicated their lives to uplifting and fighting for every Alaskan.
