

Dear fellow Alaskans,

Alaska faces one of the most consequential elections in our history. Your choices will determine the direction of our communities, our state and our nation. Now more than ever, we must stand united for the ideals we cherish: freedom, limited government, safety, responsible resource development, economic opportunity and a strong future for our children.

As we head into the final stretch of the 2026 election, we want to take a moment to recognize every candidate who stepped forward to serve and the families, volunteers and grassroots activists who have stood beside them. Running for office is not easy. It takes an enormous commitment and sacrifice, not only from the candidates, but from their loved ones, volunteers, and supporters. We are grateful to everyone who has worked so hard throughout this election cycle and will continue to do so heading into Election Day. We are honored to work alongside each of you.

We also want to speak plainly about our election system. We, as the members of the Alaska Republican Party, have consistently called for the repeal of Ranked Choice Voting (RCV), unanimously passing resolutions in support of its repeal in 2024 and 2026.

We want to be clear: we do not support ranked choice voting. It is a confusing, burdensome and costly voting scheme. That said, ranked choice voting is the system Alaska will use for the 2026 General Election, and we must work within it for this election to keep Alaska's recent momentum going strong.

Whatever our frustration with the process, we will rank every Republican on our ballots, and we call on you to do the same. Make your choices deliberately: choose your favorite Republican, rank the remaining Republicans, and leave every Democrat blank. This is how we win. Just as importantly, November is about participation and getting out to vote. Make sure your voice is heard. Alaska elections can be extraordinarily close. Some Alaskan races have been decided by fewer than ten votes. Every vote matters. Every community matters. And every Alaskan has a voice in determining the future of our great state.

Elections are decided by the people who show up. Today, we are asking you to make a simple pledge: vote this November and encourage five friends or family members to vote, too. Rank the Republicans on your ballot. Leave the Democrats blank.

Let's show up in numbers worthy of the great state and country we love.
